WE CAN HELP

We are Rhode Island’s non-profit workforce education and training providers, meeting the needs of employers and workers in the state for over 20 years.

Amos House
An Even Start in Newport
Blackstone Valley
Community Action Program
Central Falls Even Start
Community Action Partnership of Providence
Community Care Alliance/Project LEARN
Community College of Rhode Island
Comprehensive Community Action Programs
Cranston Adult Education
Crossroads Rhode Island
Dorcas International Institute of Rhode Island
East Bay Skills Alliance (Newport)
Education Exchange
English For Action
Genesis Center
Goodwill Industries
Institute for Labor Studies & Research
Literacy Volunteers of East Bay
Literacy Volunteers of Washington County
Newport Community School/Aquidneck Island Adult Learning Center
Pawtucket Adult Education
Progreso Latino
Providence Housing Authority
Providence Public Library/Rhode Island Family Literacy Initiative (RIFLI)
Rhode Island College Outreach Programs
Rhode Island Department of Corrections
Rhode Island Indian Council
RIRAL
South County Community Action
Tri-Town Community Action
Westbay Community Action Program
Westerly Public Schools - Families Learning Together
Woonsocket Even Start
YouthBuild Providence
We Rhode Island Network

Go to Rlworkforceeducation.org or email us at info@riaepdc.org for more information about how Rhode Island’s non-profit workforce education and training programs can benefit your current employees or provide you with motivated future employees.

Do you want to increase the SKILLS AND PRODUCTIVITY of your employees?

The Governor’s Workforce Board and the Rhode Island Department of Education support Rhode Island’s non-profit workforce education and training providers in their commitment to providing education and work opportunities that lead to careers.

This pamphlet was produced with support from the US Department of Education’s Office of Career, Technical and Adult Education’s Networks for Integrating New Americans (NINA) initiative.

Are you looking for MOTIVATED CANDIDATES to join your team?
WE OFFER CUSTOMIZED WORKFORCE TRAINING

WORKSITE CLASSES
We provide customized training to develop the potential of your current employees and to build a more skilled and higher performing workforce.

Education and training can include:
· Curriculum customized to your unique needs
· Affordable on-site education, and/or referrals to free and low-cost community programs
· Computer skills, English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL), math, reading, writing, High School Equivalency (for example, GED or NEDP)
· Industry-recognized certifications

WE CONNECT YOU WITH TALENT IN RHODE ISLAND’S COMMUNITIES

NEW HIRES
We connect you with motivated, skilled, and multilingual candidates.

INTERNS
We offer you well-prepared interns and provisional employees, and help them develop into qualified workers during their placement at your company.

OUR PARTNERS
We have expertise partnering with diverse sectors including:
Construction
Healthcare
Hospitality
Manufacturing
Technology
Social Services

FUNDING
We can help you identify and apply for funding (such as grants or tax incentives) to support training and defray the costs of employee development. Other services are also available—all for a fee that you can afford.

OUR CANDIDATES

EXPERIENCE & MOTIVATION
Our candidates have work experience in multiple industries, and are ready to learn new skills at your workplace.

PREPARATION & JOB READINESS
We have candidates who have completed industry certificates or pre-apprenticeship programs, and who are ready to join your team.

LANGUAGE & CULTURAL SKILLS
Our candidates have diverse language and cultural backgrounds.

“The employees that come to me are well-trained, hard working, conscientious people who want what we all want—a chance at a better life.”
—ROBYN YAFFE, Owner of Garden Grille, Wildflour & The Grange

Over the last five years, Rhode Island’s non-profit workforce education and training providers served nearly 30,000 adult Rhode Islanders.

In 2015, approximately 40% of our students were employed, and 42% were looking for work. All of these adults are investing their own time in classes to improve their skills for greater opportunities for themselves and their families, strengthening the state’s economy.